New York Central's Fastest Express Train Is Hurled from Track by Switch Deliberately Locked Open at Mentor. Ohio.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CLEVELAND, O., June 22.-Twenty-one dead are on the list of victims of the wreck of the east-bound Twentieth Century Flyer of the New York Central at Mentor, O., caused by the work of a fiend who deliberately threw open a switch and locked it in that position. The number of injured cannot be definitely placed, as mey are scattered about dried up the field and allowed Harvard in various hospitals and at houses near the scene of the disaster. Some and Yale to play the first of their of the injured who have been identified are mortally hurt.

Officials of the Lake Shore Railroad, on whose tracks the wreck occurred, are satisfied that the terrible smash was planned with the idea c. accomplishing just what it did-smashing the fastest train in the world. The whole detective force of the system is diligently searching for clues. The train is said to have been running at a faster rate than a mile a minute when ! struck the misplaced tracks. Testimony differs as to whether the signal light had been extinguished or was set white, indicating safety. The whole train was piled up, the engine boiler burst, and flames and steam scalded and roasted the victims buried under the debris.

Minor, the telegraph operator, says he was on the platform just before the train arrived and notice nothing wrong with the switch. He sterped into the station to avoid the suction of the swiftly passing train, and a moment later heard it bound from the tracks and erash into the freight-house, which was smashed into Conductor Hammond, of the wrecked train, who escaped injury of a serious nature, examined the switch the switch locked it and found it worked perfectly. The light was out, but the iamp was in such a position that the light would have shown red to the engineer of the Limited had it not been extinguisacd.

Fireman Gorham told General Manager Marshall, or the Lake Shore, that the signal light had shown white.

"Allen Tyler (the enginee' when he reached Mentor," said G siam, "told me: It's O K, the signal's right."

"The light showed white and we both saw it white. It was just after that the engine struck the switch and left the tracks."

"The agent at Mentor," said Mr. Marshall, "corroborated Gorham in regard to the signal being set white, yet the switch being one way and the Mentor of the switch showed in perfect condition after the accident. There does not seek to be any way to account for it. The switch showed in perfect condition after the accident. There certainly was no defect in either switches or rails. The Sheepshead Bay Handicap, with some of the best horses in training carded, and the Surf Stakes, with a small but select field of two-year-olds engaged, helped make the programme very attractive from a racing point of view. The people thought so, too, for they came down to the course is sumbers that clicked on the turnstiles the record attendance of the week.

The other races were very attractive outside of the opening event, which scratched down to a small field and gave an actual walkover to Big Ben. The stories that arrangements had clations and the bookmakers whereb the latter agreed to contribute $6,000 day for purses have not the slightest foundation in fact. No such arrangement has been made nor is there the slightest chance that such a one will be entered into.
